MRS. WALTER BRADLEY BECKER
... On Tahoe Wedding Trip

Pauline Lupo Plights Vows With W. B. Becker at Nativity

Approximately 450 relatives and friends assembled at the Nativity Catholic Church last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to witness the marriage ceremony in which Miss Pauline Marie Lupo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lupo, 21822 Moneta Ave., became the wife of Walter Bradley Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Becker of Long Beach.

Mrs. Minnie McConologue at the organ played nuptial music and accompanied Miss Diane Powers who sang "Ave Maria."

Entering the church first were the bridesmaids, Misses Sandra Becker, Miriam Gogian, Roberta O'Connell, and Carol Cooper. Each wore a ballerina length gown of white chiffon, the bodice of which was embroidered in pale pink. They carried showers of pink carnations.

Miss Delores Di Massa was the maid of honor also wearing white chiffon. Pale blue embroidery decorated her gown and she carried white carnations.

Little Susan Allen, in a white ruffled frock trimmed with pink and carrying a white basket of pink carnations, was the flower girl. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of silk peau de sole with an embroidered bodice, and trimmed with French imported lace. Her veil cascaded from a tiara and she carried a white prayer book, white orchids, and valley lilies.

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man Milton Becker. Ushers were Gene Coleman, Marvin Stabler, Ronald Colfield, Mike Janisch and Paul Lupo.

Guests were greeted at a reception at the Hollywood Riviera Club. The honeymooners will be at Lake Tahoe for two weeks before returning to Long Beach to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Nativity School here, St. Anthony's in Long Beach, and attended El Camino College where she was a member of Delta Sigma Chi.

Her bridegroom is a graduate of Poly High in Long Beach.

Fireladies Planning for Rodeo Days

The regular monthly meeting of the ladies of the Torrance Fire Department Auxiliary was held Monday night, July 1, at the home of Mrs. Sam Dial. Mrs. Ed Polston, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Walt West was co-hostess.

Plans were made for the forth-coming rodeo and parade. Committees are also starting preparations for the Fireman's Ball to be held in October.

Each member is asked to bring a guest to the next meeting, which will be Aug. 5, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Loy with Mrs. Sam Martin co-hostess.

Members attending Monday night were: Mmes. George Blank, Robert Brown, Leonard Christian, Sam Dial, Milton Langum, Sam Martin, John Millard, Ed Polston, Charles Reitsma, Dick Sprout, Frank Tuttle, Billy Wood, and Walt West.

Youngsters Attend Party

Mary Jean Winklebauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Winklebauer, 2713 Martha Ave., was feted on her eleventh birthday anniversary last Saturday when a group of friends gathered for a weiner bake.

Joining for the games, food and birthday cake were Pat McVey, Sharon and Theresa Hopper, Marilyn Nincevic, Pat Hughes, Colleen O'Hara, Karen and Jean Giauquinto, Susan Klaesges, Maria Castaner, Cynthia Carlin, Linda Byk, Judy Jones, Karen Marquadt, Claudia Carlton and Carol Ann Winklebauer, sister of the honoree.

CDA Plans Benefit Coffee For New Catholic Hospital

Making plans for a benefit "coffee" highlighted the meeting of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening, at Nativity parish hall. The patio at the home of Mrs. Leonard Young, 2355 El Dorado, will be the pleasant setting for the breakfast to benefit the proposed new Little Company of Mary Hospital, on next Tuesday, July 16. Homemade coffee cake and coffee will be served between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Friends and neighbors are welcome, according to Mrs. Young, who will have several assisting hostesses from the court membership.

Mrs. Donald Cowden, new grand regent, has announced her chairmen for the coming year: Mmes. Gerald Loew, program; T. T. Babbitt, parliamentarian; William Healey, study club; George Shelton, social welfare; John McVey, extension; Richard Olson, share the faith; William Hardsy, secret pal; Helen Quinn, sunshine and sick; Lyle O'Hara, confraternity; Francis A. Gately, hospitality; Norman Baker, public relations; Robert Lewellen, Jr., press book; Patricia White, librarian; John V. Murray, music; Paul Hinggen, telephone; Francis Baker, legislation.

It was voted to sponsor a year's scholarship at a Catholic high school for a girl graduate of Nativity School. An attractive arrangement of white stock and pink carnations centered the buffet table from which refreshments were served. Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Leroy Armstrong and Robert O'Brien, co-chairmen, also Michael McMahon, Joseph Lucas, Peter O'Brien, Fred Burrill and Laurence Sargeant.

Mrs. Joseph Terkmay, junior past grand regent, was recently initiated into the Past Regents Club of southern California, at the quarterly dinner meeting held at Catholic Women's Club. Other past regents attending from the local court included Mmes. Frank H. Forster, J. J. MacDonald, T. T. Babbitt, Francis A. Gately, Lyle J. O'Hara, John F. Gitschier and Robert Lewellen, Jr.

Enamels Go On Display

Nationally known enamels of Ellamarie and Jackson Woolley will be presented July 15-27 by Curt Wagner, 1729 South Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Exclusive to the South Bay area, the show will display the new dramatic enamel wall plaques of the San Diego wife and man team.

The Woolleys have won prizes in key national and regional ceramic exhibitions from California to New York. Their works have been purchased by six major museums and their large murals appear in public buildings in Nevada, Texas and Oregon.

The wall plaques and panels will be on display in the Curt Wagner store.
